

SWEET CAKES

Contents:

- Small and tasty
- Cream layer cakes and pies for party occasions
- A variety of cakes

Söta Kakor

Jessica Jowilin & Kerstin Hermelin

190x240, 96pp

Sweet cakes is full of the joy of baking in the kitchen; the recipes are inspiring and are easy to follow.

Here is something sweet for every occasion, regardless of whether you prefer to sit in your favourite armchair with the book and a plate of cakes on your lap, or want to bake cakes for a party, for birthday parties or Saturday coffee and cakes with friends. Regardless of whether the autumn rain beats against the windows or the birds are chirping in the picnic spot among the lilac bushes, every day has an afternoon. Make the best of these moments and let a cup of coffee add an extra something. And enjoy the scrumptious cakes!

Here it is! Sweet cakes is full of tasty goodies and a feel of home cosiness from old times!

About the authors:

Jessica Jowilin: Since 2006, owns and runs the Café Tant Gredelin – named after a famous figure in a children’s book, the motherly and domestic Auntie Gredelin – in Enköping, about an hour away from Stockholm. The café is housed in a charming listed building in the little town and is visited daily by regular guests as well as tourists. Home-baked pastries and cakes and good lunches are served in cosily furnished rooms. Jessica herself lives in a lovely old house in the countryside and loves to bake and potter about at home.

Kerstin Hermelin: Stylist and writer with interior decoration, food and life style as her specialities. She works for magazines and daily papers. Lives in a little cottage in the country and likes the rural & rustic, things with patina and lovely still-lives.