

101 QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT WINE

Some sample questions:

Organic, Fair-trade and natural wines – what do they really mean?

Can wine have a different bouquet and taste depending on which type of glass it is served in?

How much wine can you get from one plant in a vineyard?

Do people still trample the grapes with bare feet?

How do they produce a rosé wine?

What happens in a vineyard during the year?

How do they produce Champagne?

What is the difference between Champagne and sparkling wine?

What is tannin?

Is wine in a box just as good as wine in a bottle?

Are plastic corks alright?

Which wines can be stored?

How long does wine keep after you have opened the bottle?

What should I do if the cork has started to crumble?

How do you decant a bottle of wine?

101 frågor och svar om vin

Jens Dolk

140x180, 128 pp

No questions are too simple or too difficult for Jens to answer in a knowledgeable and simultaneously entertaining manner. Interesting facts about how different types of wine are produced around the world, mixed with practical tips about – for example – how to store your wine, serve it, cooking with wine, health and common sense and etiquette when it comes to wine.

In addition, the reader is treated to some interesting curiosa from the fascinating world of wine. Jens Dolk has a liberating and inspiring approach to wine that can be summarised in just a few words: trust in your own taste – if you think a wine tastes good, then it is good!

About the author:

Jens Dolk is active as a writer on wine in the major Swedish daily, Svenska Dagbladet. Jens is also a regular commentator on the TV4 morning programme and is one of the people behind the My Kitchen – Journey through Sweden series on TV4. Jens has previously written six books about food and wine, published by Kakao and Forma Books. You can read more about Jens on www.dolkmatochvin.se