Henok Fentie & Karl Grandin

96p

The step from drinking a locally-produced beer to brewing your own beer at home, does not need to be very long.

Home-brewed beer, made with simple equipment, has the potential to be just as good as the professional product – in many cases, often better! Henok Fentie & Karl Grandin, the founders of the phantom brewery Omnipollo, develop all their recipes at home in their own kitchen, and then they cooperate with a brewery somewhere in the world that will produce the beer on a large scale.

In Brew beer, besides ten or so recipes for Omnipollo's best beers, there are also recipes from Evil Twin Brewing, Sea-Goat Brewing, Helsingborgs Hembryggargille [Helsingborg Home Brewers' Guild] and Brooklyn Brewery. In addition the book contains basic information on how you brew beer, step-by-step pictures and facts for those who want to delve into the anatomy behind it all.

About the authors:

Henok Fentie & Karl Grandin have been the men behind the beer label Omnipollo since 2010. Their beer 'Russian Roulette' sold out in three days and is the highest ranking India Pale Ale of all times. Nebuchadnezzar, an Imperial IPA, was declared the Best Beer of the Festival at the Stockholm Beer & Whisky

Festival in 2012 (the third largest beer festival in the world). Karl Grandin was also involved with the cult clothing company Cheap Monday and the restaurant Pizzahatt.
