Comfort food från Chile till Skanör

Linda Letelier Hansson
200x250, 128pp

With one foot in Chilean cuisine and the other on Scanian soil the Masterchef participant Linda Letelier Hansson has found a unique way to make Swedish produce taste of sunshine.

Learn to cook the world's tastiest empanadas, crispy beetroot ceviche and the Latin American party cake milhojas, dishes loved by both children and adults.

Grandma Teresa in Valparaiso revealed the secret to a perfectly made soup and grandma Mary taught her the foundations of Swedish homecooking. Her interest in cooking has then followed Linda through her life and allowed her to increase her repertoire of food which is both exciting and familiar.

Since 2016 she runs the popular bistro Lindas fingermat in Skanör harbour, where people come as much for the laughter and music as for the wellfilled bowls and steaming stews.
