Piia Maria Pekkanen

210x255, 136 p

The charm of Piia Maria Pekkanen's simple and clear-cut knitwear is in the surface structures and incorporating the materials in an unconventional way. The ideas for colours and textures, for example, combining smooth and light material with heavy and coarse material, come from photos taken by the lake near Piia Maria's home in Fiskars, southern Finland.

The lake is an endless source of inspiration for Piia Maria. The separate layers of ice and melted water, currents, snow, reflections on the water and the trees on the shore of the lake daily create a new scene, which never ceases to enthral the designer. The inspirational photos act concretely as the starting point of the planning: they capture the atmosphere, which Piia Maria aims for in the knitwear. She also gets her ideas from the structure, feeling and colour of the yarn.

The collection consists of knitwear and accessories, which can be combined with each other. The patterns are fairly easy and suitable for a beginner. The book also contains a 14-part knitting school, in which the techniques used in the book are explained.

About the author

Piia Maria Pekkanen is a knitwear designer, who lives and works in an old factory milieu by a lake. She is inspired by new techniques and likes to develop different knitted surfaces.
