Knitted socks for everyday wear from toddler to grandpa.

The knitted woollen socks in this book are inspired by the traditional Finnish way of life: living in close contact with nature and enjoying the great outdoors even in the cold of winter. These models are just right for a fishing trip or a walk in the woods, and they fit nicely in your boots for any outdoor work. And they are perfect for a quiet evening at home when the day's work is done. These are practical, wearable socks to make sure everyone in your family has warm feet in a cold world.

The patterns come in many different sizes (most of them are in EU sizes 22–48 / UK sizes 5–13), so you can knit matching socks for big and small feet.

About the author

Hanne Piirainen is a working mother, a textile artisan student and knitwear designer. Having inherited passion for crafts from her grandmother, she has been knitting and crocheting since she was five.
