Knitted by hand, designed by heart.

In the new book of the top popular designer women's stranded colourwork and lace socks are mainly knitted from sport and double knit yarns. The versatile patterns include ankle socks, over-the-knee socks and everything in between.

The style that became the trademark of the designer, stranded colourwork, lace and even braids are combined in many patterns. Attention is paid in the instructions to clarity and usability, and a part of the patterns are also suitable for beginners who master the basic skills.
